

The Baha'i Faith... an introduction

You are invited to discover more about the Baha'i Faith through a short course sponsored by the Baha'is of Vancouver. Each evening will be a shared experience of teaching and discussion with a suggested reading list to further home study. Course textbook will be provided.

The Class will cover:

The Spiritual Nature of Man

Why religion? Why God?

The Baha'i Way of Life

Baha'u'llah and God's Eternal Covenant

Time	7:00 - 9:00 PM	Wednesday Evenings
Location	BAHA'I CENTRE 5880 Main St. (at 43rd)
Dates	Please call for current schedule

For more information and registration call: 604-254-1139
$10.00 registration fee. Advanced registration recommended.

Who are the Baha'is? Baha'is belong to a world wide community encompassing most racial, cultural and religious backgrounds. We recognize that the day has come for humanity to see itself as one family occupying one global homeland. Uniting the human family is the essential purpose of the Baha'i movement.